

4. We're Not Just Good-Lookin'

Cast of Characters:

SAM, the pig brother who built the straw house.
 GEORGE, the pig brother who built the stick house.
 JOE, the pig brother who built the brick house.

Props:

Door and logs to build fire.

Scene:

Inside the brick house that Joe has built.

1 (As the scene begins, JOE is frantically pulling his

2 frightened brothers, GEORGE and SAM, into his house

3 through the front door.)

4 JOE: Hurry! Hurry! Get in here so I can lock the door! (SAM,

5 GEORGE, and JOE manage to get the door locked behind

6 them. Then, with their backs pressed against the door,

7 they all breathe heavily as they catch their breath. JOE

8 recovers first.) Well, you two take the cake! You could

9 have been killed!

10 GEORGE: It wasn't my fault. It was Sam! (Points to SAM.)

11 SAM: You can't blame me for this! I didn't do anything

12 wrong! (SAM and GEORGE start to fight, simultaneously

13 arguing with lines such as, "Why, you!" "You can't talk to

14 me like that." "I oughta knock your block off!" "Take that

15 back!")

16 JOE: (Pushes his way between them.) All right you two, break

17 it up. Break it up! You're both a couple of blockheads!

18 SAM: What are you talking about? We're not blockheads! We

19 did exactly what you told us to do.

20 GEORGE: Yeah! We did exactly what you told us to do. We

21 each built a house so we could live out on our own.

1 GREYLAN: And no baked goods either!
 2 MARTY: I think we're going to go vegetarian for a while,
 3 Rosie. We'll have two orders of pasta primavera, if
 4 you don't mind.
 5 GREYLAN: And no aged cheese on top!
 6 ROSIE: Right. Two orders of pasta primavera. Hold the
 7 sausage. Hold the parmesan. Can I get you fellows
 8 anything else?
 9 GREYLAN: Not unless you can get us our dignities back!
 10 (ROSIE exits. MARTY and GREYLAN squirm in their 11 chairs, moaning in pain. Curtain.)
